

A Bibliography of the Boy Scouts of America
Part F: The BSA and the US Government –
Annual Reports, Legislation, Statutes, & War Work
Compiled June 18, 2008
David L. Peavy

The following is a bibliography of sources concerning the relationship between the United States government and the Boy Scouts of America (BSA). This bibliography includes the Annual Reports of the BSA, for most of its 98 years these were published by the US Congress. Over the years, various pieces of legislation were passed by the US Congress of benefit to the BSA. These legislative activities resulted in Congressional reports and hearings, as well as enactment of public laws. References to these documents are provided. In addition, the BSA became involved in domestic war-related activities for the First and Second World Wars for the federal government. References to some of these war work specific documents are provided.

Additions to this listing will be made upon receipt of additional information. If you are aware of a source that is not listed, please send the following information to davidp.peavy@paxtu.org: author, title, journal name (volume number, issue number & page numbers), place of publication, and publisher.

Boy Scouts of America Annual Reports

The BSA's Annual Reports were published by the BSA National Council from 1912 through 1917. With the passage of the Federal Charter in 1916, beginning with the 8th Annual Report (1917), the US Government Printing Office printed the BSA's Annual Report as either a House or Senate document in the Congressional Serial Set. Since 1977, the BSA's Annual Reports were published by the BSA National Council.
